

James Costello – Creative Holidays

“Noumea is one place to come back to again and again. It’s for me, living in Australia, a little piece of France 2.5hrs away from Sydney. It’s not just an Island Holiday it’s a cultural experience Melanesian and French. I hope it never loses its French feel as being so close to Australia means I don’t have to spend heaps for a short trip away to have a European experience”
